- Literally a super human I do not understand So inclusive so thoughtful and well spoken and always there to help So knowledgeable Actually life goals
- Erin was very supportive and available to help on assignments and concepts and facilitated very engaging discussions during section.
- Erin was so good at keeping the learning environment strong and new perspectives going in the conversation. I felt that Erin keep the environment open and people were able to speak their minds. She did a great job in teaching us about the concepts as well and giving us ongoing perspectives in the literature base. She was an incredible teacher.
- Erin was wonderful! She was very responsive to emails and helpful in the exam review sessions. During section, she was great at facilitating discussion and was super respectful of everyone's opinions.
- The way that Erin provided us with different questions during discussion surely facilitated more insightful conversation between everyone in the class as well as kept the debate going when it was dying out.

9 - Based on the effectiveness of instruction (clarity, expertise, enthusiasm, rigor, support, inspiration, etc), overall the teaching assistant, Erin Campbell, was

- Sections were engaged/facilitated well
- She was super helpful with to connect with whenever I had any questions.
- She is incredible!!!
- Erin did a great job in my discussion section. I really enjoyed the get-to-know you questions at the beginning of every section.
- I think Erin was a great TA! She was clearly so passionate. The only thing that bothered me was how she ran to answer questions during our exams. This kind of distracted me. But shows she was so eager to help us! I also enjoyed her guest lecture, but I think a variation in tone and speed of voice could make it even better! Thanks Erin!
- - very kind and welcoming - good lecturer - helpful review sessions
- The TAs were amazing- they were always available to help and provided great exam review. Erin ran our section so well.
- While Erin wasn't my section TA, she was always there to answer my questions and did an incredible job with our exam reviews. Her video lecture on autism was also incredible.
- Erin was incredible - she really helped me learn so much about the course! She was always so helpful and quick to respond to any of my questions and was so supportive in facilitating my learning. Cause of this course, I may major in psych, and she played a huge role in that.
- Erin is such an amazing TA! She is so kind and fosters a welcoming and inclusive class atmosphere by valuing all students' contributions and encouraging discussion. She is also very responsive to questions over email! She encouraged us to participate without pressuring us or making us feel bad when we didn't have anything to say as a class about a topic. She also made every assignment as low-stress as possible, including exams, which was so appreciated and really facilitated learning.
- Erin Campbell did an excellent job as a teaching assistant. I greatly enjoyed our discussion sections and learned a lot, and Erin was very kind and helpful. I am thankful for her hard work this semester!
- Excellent, no complaints
- Erin was so helpful and clear about course expectations and guidelines. She was prompt when responding to emails and was available to meet outside class hours. It felt like she and Fernanda (the other TA) were the ones running the show rather than the actual instructor.
- Review sessions were great!
- I did not really work under her but she was always helpful and kind spirited when I did encounter her.
- I did not interact much with Ms. Campbell, but when I did it was lovely! She taught a great class later in the semester
- The TAs were timely with grading our work, and always available to answer questions. Throughout the semester, I could tell that they were great advocates for the students. I don't have any constructive comments for Erin - thank you for a great semester!
- The teaching assistants directed section very well and facilitated an open-ended discussion about every topic that we were required to read about for section. Since the readings involved taking sides, it allowed us to see that there is more than one side to every issue and that many pros and cons must be considered to make an informed decision. The teaching assistants shared resources and held additional review sessions for the exam to help us feel as prepared as possible. They were always very helpful, kind, and easily reachable.
- You are amazing
- Erin did a really great job moderating the discussion in section. Even when she may have disagreed with someone, or someone had an opinion that was contrary to the majority of the section, she heard them out, was respectful, and made sure nobody ever felt embarrassed to share anything. She created a comfortable space for discussion. There were also several times that I had logistical questions or issues and she was always more than happy to help and very responsive.
- Hi, Erin! I wasn't in your discussions, but thank you for your help and contributions this semester. Even though I didn't get to know you as well, it was clear how much work you put into everything, especially with how Fernanda would discuss pertinent aspects of your research or how you made the slides and released information/study sessions to all of us. Thank you so much!
- I thought that the review sessions before every test were always so insightful and made me feel more confident about my abilities to recite the material.
- While she was not my TA, she was extremely helpful and available, in terms of answering questions in the weeks leading up to exams.
